

CPE Test for 39.4

1. Operation Frontline's Eating Right curriculum does not include information related to:
 - a. Planning balanced meals
 - b. Smart shopping
 - c. Effective parenting skills
 - d. Appropriate food safety practices

2. Which of the following do not reflect the constructs of the theory of experiential learning:
 - a. Individuals are active participants in the learning process
 - b. The instructor is the expert and imparts new information to the learners
 - c. Participants' prior experiences inform the development of the learning environment
 - d. Learners' prior experiences and reflections on those experiences contribute to the learning process

3. Advantages of a retrospective pre/post test include all of the following except:
 - a. Less class time is involved in evaluation
 - b. Information can be gathered at one time point
 - c. Participant discomfort may be lessened because the program does not start with a "test"
 - d. Social desirability bias is avoided

4. The follow-up method that was found to be most successful in this study was:
 - a. Telephone
 - b. U.S. mail
 - c. Email
 - d. Reunion class

5. Limitations of this study included all of the following except:
 - a. Study involved a limited geographical area
 - b. All research subjects were English-speaking
 - c. Some of the study participants were not low-income
 - d. The study had a small sample size

6. In this study, how many mailings were needed to achieve a reasonable response rate?
 - a. 1.
 - b. 2
 - c. 3
 - d. 4

7. Operation Frontline is a community nutrition education program established by which national non-profit organization:
 - a. UNICEF
 - b. Save the Children Foundation
 - c. Share Our Strength
 - d. America's Second Harvest

8. Response shift bias refers to an error in a measure due to the subject's desire to provide socially desirable answers.
 - a. True
 - b. False

9. Please indicate your satisfaction with the process of using this JNEB article for continuing education:
 - a. Extremely satisfied
 - b. Satisfied
 - c. Unsatisfied
 - d. Extremely unsatisfied

10. Please describe how you will make use of the information in this article in your professional setting.

11. Please comment on the process and topics you would like to be made available for continuing education credit in the future.